Support Service

All pupils with SEND have access to a broad and balanced curriculum. They are taught by teachers with training and experience in the adaptation and delivery of lessons in order to ensure the removal of barriers to learning. Lessons are adapted and delivered at an achievable level for all students.

The quality of every teacher's provision for pupils with SEN is observed, monitored and challenged as part of the Academy's quality assurance processes and the teachers' annual performance management arrangements.

Retford Oaks Academy provides regular training throughout the year to support teachers in addressing specific SEND, ensuring that pupils receive 'quality first teaching'.

How do we identify children with Special Educational Needs?

The identification of SEND is built into the overall approach to monitoring the progress and development of all students and is the responsibility of all members of staff.

The assessment of special educational needs will actively involve the student, their parents/carers and their teachers.

Data will be used to help us accurately assess and plan for the needs of all students with SEND. The data used is a combination of students' academic progress, standardised assessments and diagnostic tests identifying of strengths and weaknesses in maths and English.

The above information will form a starting point from which we can intervene and build a comprehensive picture of progress. For some students, we may also seek advice from specialist agencies.

Feedback on student progress is via termly reports, parents' evenings and student review days. Parents can track behaviour, homework and attendance via Pars INSIGHT, our online system. Parents can contact either the tutor or the SENCO at any time to discuss their child's progress.

How do we work with parents and students?

Parents/carers are invited to review meetings, Parents' Evening and to contribute to their child's Pupil Profile. Information on support agencies, including the Parent Partnership Project, is available from the SENCO.

Where more frequent regular contact with parents is necessary, this will be arranged accordingly. If an assessment or referral indicates that a student has additional Learning Needs, the parents and the pupil will always be consulted with regards to future provision. Parents are invited to attend meetings with external agencies regarding their child, and are kept up to date and consulted on any points of action drawn up in regards to the provision for their child.

Adapting the curriculum & interventions

All students in the academy are placed into appropriate classes according to their academic profile on entry. All teachers are expected to differentiate their teaching to match individual needs. A large team of Teaching Assistants provide additional support across all years to ensure students' progress well.

Further strategies to ensure children can access the curriculum include:

- Keeping staff fully informed of the special educational needs of any students in their charge including sharing progress reports, medical reports and teacher feedback
- Providing regular CPD opportunities for staff in all departments on the subject of SEND and SEND teaching. School staff should be up to date with teaching methods which will aid the progress of all students including those with SEND
- Using in-class provisions and TA support effectively to ensure that the curriculum is differentiated where necessary.
- Implementing Individual access arrangements for informal and external examinations

Support for Transition

For students with identified SEND, communication between primary and secondary education starts when the child starts Year 5. The SENCO and other academy staff will meet with primary school staff and parents/carers to discuss a student and build a picture of the support and any possible extended transition. All students will attend a transition week in Year 6, an extended 'in year transition' for those with SEND is offered to provide a more tailored experience. As a secondary Academy, we will attend meetings at the relevant primary school prior to transition week, to ensure a smooth and supported transfer. Where appropriate, the Academy works in partnership with the Educational Psychology service and other external professionals involved in the support of vulnerable students and students with SEND.

Working with the support of agencies

The Academy works in partnership with the Educational Psychology service and the Support for Families and Schools Service. It also has a good professional working relationship with many outside agencies including Family Services, Health and Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service.
